

LAMMERS PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT SCHOLARSHIP
2011 Winner

Barbara J. Holler

Barbara J. Holler from Salem, Oregon, received the 7th annual Lammers Professional Development Scholarship at the 65th annual Oregon Business Education Association (OBEA) Conference held in Pendleton, Oregon, at the Red Lion on October 14, 2011.

Barbara is a full-time instructor at Chemeketa Community College in the Business Technology program. She is currently serving as co-president elect of OBEA with Patti Sessions, who is also an instructor at Chemeketa Community College.

Both will serve as co-presidents in 2012-13. Barbara has an extensive background in education and brings a wealth of experience to her professional associations. She served as Director of FBLA for five years in the state of Oregon.

The Lammers' Scholarship recipient must be a current member of OBEA and be willing to serve in some leadership capacity on the OBEA Council. Barbara will receive up to $300 to help defray expenses to attend the 2012 NBEA Convention at the Marriott Hotel in Boston, Massachusetts. The Lammers Scholarship was established to honor Mary Ann Lammers, the 2004-05 president of the National Business Education Association (NBEA). Mary Ann is a retired faculty member and former Department Chair of the Business

Technology Department at Linn-Benton Community College.
